

Suffolk Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SUFFOLK, VA., August 8.—The Tuesday Bridge-Whist Club was entertained this week by Mrs. James C. Causey, Jr., at her home on West Washington Street. Mrs. Gilbert Hume made the highest score.
Mrs. Shannon, Miss Shannon and Miss Mattie Love Harris, concluding a visit to Mrs. John, have returned to their homes in Henderson, N. C.
Mr. and Mrs. W. Wilson, Jr., this week visited Richmond, their former home.
Miss Amy Sloan, of New York, this week was a guest of Mrs. W. M. Crumpler, on Grace Street.
Mrs. W. P. Roberts, of Gatesville, N. C., is being entertained by Mrs. L. N. Baker.
Miss Virginia Lynch has returned from a stay at Virginia Beach.
Mrs. R. H. Rawles has returned from Ocean View.
Mr. W. S. Kilby and Master Thomas Woodward have returned from Burlington, N. C., where they visited Mrs. John Page, Mr. Kilby's brother.
The Rev. E. E. Edwards has concluded a visit to his sister, Mrs. H. A. Morgan, and gone for a visit to Buffalo Litchia Springs, Va.
The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met Wednesday evening at the Main Street Church.
Judge James L. McLemore, J. N. Burgess and Judge R. R. Prentiss this week attended the Bar Association at Hot Springs.
Sheriff and Mrs. A. H. Baker are at Buffalo Litchia Springs.
Miss Ursula Williams is visiting her uncle, the Rev. C. O. Pruden, in Chatham, Va.
Miss Mary Winbourne has returned from a visit to Norfolk, taking in the summer resorts around that place, thence up the James to Richmond. From this place they will board a train and return to Lynchburg about August 15th. The merry party took along ample provisions, and with plenty of cordials, watermelons and cantaloupes along the river banks, there is no reason why the "picnickers" should lack for the substantial of life.
Miss Maud M. Walker and mother, Mrs. M. M. Walker, Mr. Charles Hatcher, Mr. Bailey Richardson and Mr. Richard Walker, all of Lynchburg.
Miss Virginia Cunningham gave a card party in honor of Miss Cuts, of Georgia, on Wednesday.
Quite a delightful morning party was given by Mrs. H. J. Watkins on Thursday in honor of Mrs. C. W. Davis. A camping party composed of jolly boys and girls left here Thursday for a several days' outing at "Loch Lily". The members of the party were Misses Geraldine Patterson and Mary Dietrick, of Danville; Lillie McDowell, of Vernon Hill; Maud and Myrtle Mohane, Messrs. Chas. Daniel, Joe Lobane, Cabell McDowell, Claude Coates, Wallace Ballow, Frank Mebane, of South Boston; and Henry Dietrick, of Danville. Mrs. E. Willis was chaperon.
Mrs. James Lipscomb gave a delightful morning party on Friday, in honor of Mrs. C. W. Davis, of Danville. Mrs. Gravelly was presented with a dainty fancy pin as a souvenir of the occasion. On Saturday evening, Mrs. S. C. Morton entertained in her honor, and delicious ices and cakes were served.
Miss Marshall, of Danville; Miss Edna Greenwood, of Vernon Hill; Mrs. Chas. Chandler, of Newport News; Misses Motley, of this place; Misses Beale and Annie Chandler, of Scottsburg, let this week for Barnett's pond, or "Loch Lily," near Roxboro, to spend some time camping.
Misses Lella Eblecker and Juliette Johnston, two popular nurses of St. Luke's Hospital, Richmond, are spending several days at the home of Mrs. Calder, of Richmond, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webster this week.
Miss Rosa Glass, who has been visiting in Washington, has returned, accompanied by her friend, Miss Sallie Graves, of that place.
Miss Byrd M. Vancey has returned from Richmond, where she has been spending several months.
Misses Elizabeth Neill and Margaret Massey, of Danville, are visiting Miss Nell Carrington.

Smithfield Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SMITHFIELD, VA., August 8.—Misses Mary Joyce and Hattie Pollard are the guests of Miss Elsie Price, of Norfolk, Va.
Miss Lillian Jordan, of Raynort, is visiting Mrs. J. J. Jordan.
Misses Ida and Susie Lipscomb, of Richmond, are the guests of Miss Grace Goodrich.
Miss Grace Day is at home, after visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas S. Martin, of Charlottesville.
Mr. Theo. Baker, of Norfolk, is the guest of Dr. J. S. Wilson, of Norfolk, Va.
Mr. and Mrs. B. West Tabb are visiting Mrs. J. L. Underwood.
Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Campbell, of Washington, D. C., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. Chapman.
Miss Martha Lane, of Williamsburg, is the guest of Mrs. John Coker.
Miss Theodosia Womble left Saturday for Virginia Beach.
Misses Anne and Dollie Chalmers are visiting Miss Barkdale, of Portsmouth.
Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Hudson, who have been the guests of Rev. and Mrs. B. B. Scott, left Friday for their home in Norfolk.
Mr. W. G. Blam, of Suffolk, spent several days in town last week.
Miss Susie Jordan, of Carrollton, Va., is visiting Miss Pauline Dashiell.
Miss Mary Ives Barrow is at home after spending several days at Old Point, Va.
The young men of the town gave a very enjoyable launch party Thursday evening on the "Carrie".
The miniature reproduction of the Exposition, given by the ladies of the Methodist Church, was quite a success.

Winterpock Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WINTERPOCK, VA., August 8.—Miss Beale and Master Robert Henley are visiting relatives in Tappahannock.
Mr. and Mrs. Leonidas Lester, Mr. Edw. Gill and Miss Annie Chatham, all of this place, spent Saturday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Kelley of Beach, Va.
Miss Annie Goode has returned home from Poughatton, Courthouse, where she has been visiting relatives.
Mr. Harvey Elliott, who recently came from Mexico on account of sickness, left on Tuesday last for Poughatton.
Mr. Henry Gill is visiting his sister, Mrs. Jackson, of Beach, Va.
Mr. and Mrs. Foster spent Sunday in the home of Mr. C. W. Fugate.
On Saturday night a lawn party will be given at the home of Mr. George Hall for the benefit of Tomahawk Baptist Church.
Mr. Jack Chatham visited his daughter, Mrs. Veron Fugate on Sunday last.
Mr. and Mrs. Harding, of Washington, D. C., are visiting in the home of Mr. C. P. McEnally.
Mrs. I. E. Leonard and her son, Arthur, visited Mr. R. E. Osborn Sunday.

Providence Forge Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PROVIDENCE FORGE, VA., August 8.—The dance given by Mrs. R. E. Richardson and Mrs. C. Harrison at Taylorsville Wednesday night was the society event of the week.
Mr. Edmund Christian, of Jersey City, spent last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Christian, of this place.
Miss Ellen Jerdone and Miss Gladys Coleman left Thursday for Newport News and Buckroe.

Christian, are visiting at Stirling House.

Mr. Hill Christian and Mr. William Chalkley returned to Richmond Monday, after a delightful fishing trip on the Chickahominy.
Mr. H. H. Smith, who has been preaching at this place during the summer, has left for a few weeks' vacation before returning to the seminary.
Ernest Purdom has accepted a position at Orlando, Fla.
Mr. R. F. Coleman, of Richmond, has been spending the week fishing and hunting on the lower Chickahominy.
Miss Ruth Scott, of Richmond, is visiting Miss Fedora Haxall, in Charles City.

West Point Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WEST POINT, VA., August 8.—Dr. L. S. Folkes, of West Point, has engaged Takamas Springs, York's summer resort, for next week, and will take down several of his friends on his handsome launch "Grace." Another party has been up the Mattaponi as the "Avalon," spending two nights at Walkerton en route.
Rev. Mr. Folkes, of Gloucester, will fill the appointment at Dr. J. V. Vaughn here and at Popponess Church on Sunday, while Dr. Vaughn goes to Liberty Church, New Kent, to hold a series of meetings in Mr. Folkes's church.
Mrs. Barnhill, formerly Miss Nellie Timberlake, of New Kent, and children, now of Richmond, are spending August at the Ridgeway House.
Mrs. Herbert Spencer, formerly Miss Maud Patterson, and her mother, formerly of Richmond, now of San Antonio, Tex., are the guests of Mrs. Emma Spencer.
An expert stage builder is putting an up-to-date stage, with handsome scenery, in the Masonic Hall, which was bought by a stock company and thoroughly renovated and repaired in the spring.
Mrs. O. M. Chandler have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Aurelia Blanche Chandler, to Mr. John Wiley Johnson, August 15th, at 8 o'clock in the evening.
Mrs. C. V. Vaughn entertained her Sunday-school class on Wednesday evening at the Baptist parsonage. The house and porch were thrown open and decorated with beautiful lanterns and plants. Ice-cream and cake were served.
Rev. Roy E. Hudson, of the Methodist Church, and family, who have been resting in Bedford for the past month, returned to-day, and Mr. Hudson will fill his pulpit on Sunday.
Mrs. James De Farges, son and mother, of Newport News, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John S. De Farges.
Miss Clara Clayton, of Gloucester, is the guest of Mrs. A. Julian Bagby.
Miss Virginia Ying Ling, of Westminster, Md., is the guest of Miss Ann McEntina.
Mrs. R. W. Eubank is resting at Braddock Heights, Md.

Buena Vista Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BUENA VISTA, VA., August 8.—Hon. Aubrey Stroude and Judge Clarence Campbell spent Tuesday in the city.
Mr. Carter, of Lynchburg, returned from a visit to his uncle, Mr. Hall Lackey, at Timber Ridge.
Mrs. M. Rucker and little daughter, Katharine, have returned from a visit to Mr. James Patton near Bon Air. Mrs. Rucker continues to suffer a great deal with rheumatism.
Mr. Parks Rucker was the week-end guest of his father, Mr. D. H. Rucker.
Mr. Andrew Ross is spending the summer with his father, Mr. D. H. Rucker.
Judge Houston, of Lexington, is in town this week holding court.
Miss Lella Richardson has been quite indisposed for several weeks.
Miss Dunbar Alvett, of Cumberland, Md., is visiting her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Alvett, in the city.
Mrs. Florence Rivers and Master John Alvett Rivers, en route from New York to the home of their uncle, Mr. Alvett.
Miss Beale Burke has returned from a visit to her father, Mr. H. B. Burke.
Miss Emma Lear, of Farmville, who will be assistant principal at the Bowling Green Seminary next year, spent last week at the Southern Seminary here.
Mrs. Gilbert Baile, of Canton, N. C., has been a recent guest of her father, Mr. A. H. Thompson.
Mr. Julian Gunn, of Richmond, was in the city last week.

Cape Charles Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CAPE CHARLES, VA., August 8.—Mrs. Charley Savage and daughter, Lucille, of Roanoke, Va., are spending some time with Mrs. L. T. Whittington on Tazewell Avenue.
Mr. William Nottingham, with his wife and daughter, are visiting Philadelphia, Atlantic City and Stockton.
Miss Nannie Bet Nottingham has just returned from a visit to relatives in Norfolk.
Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Halleck, who have been spending the summer in Cape Charles, returned Monday for their home in Chicago.
Mr. and Mrs. William Gilmore Smith are spending their vacation in New England, where they are visiting their daughter, Miss Marion Barlow, of Williamsburg, Va.
Miss Rose Turner, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Accomac, will return to the city on the 16th of August.
Mrs. John Day, of Norfolk, is visiting the home of her sister, Mrs. W. N. Williams.
Misses Gilmer S. Kendall and bride have returned from their tour and will make their home in Eastville, Va.
Misses Wilson, of Richmond, are visiting at the home of Mrs. W. G. Smith.

Wytheville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WYTHEVILLE, VA., August 8.—On Friday, Mrs. W. S. Trinkle entertained a large number of friends in honor of her house guest, Mrs. William McFarlane, of Portsmouth.
On Saturday morning Mrs. R. J. Preston entertained at a breakfast in honor of her son, Mr. Julian Gravelly.
Miss Virginia Dewey was the hostess of the Five Hundred Club on Tuesday morning.
A party of young people, chaperoned by Miss Lillie Withers and Mr. Stephen Putney, Jr., left Wednesday for a camping expedition in the neighborhood of Gettysburg.
Mrs. H. J. Heuser was the charming hostess at a card party on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. S. Dodson and Richmond, of Millington, N. C.
Rev. M. P. Logan, D. D., of Nashville, is visiting friends and relatives here. His family, who are spending time at Radford, will join him later.
Miss McGosh, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mrs. L. A. De Van at her home, "Sunny Crest," for a few days.
Mr. William Todd De Van has returned after spending several months in England and France.
Mrs. W. L. McCrory and daughters, of Knoxville, Tenn., have arrived, and will spend some time at their summer home, "Green Meadow," near town.
Miss Lizzie Walker, of Wightman, will be their guest for the month of August.
Miss Fannie Turner, of Lowell, is visiting Mrs. Virginia Oweil.

Leesburg Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LEESBURG, VA., August 8.—Mrs. Mary Hutchinson returned on Friday from Virginia Beach.
Mrs. L. B. Burkhardt, wife of the rector of St. James Episcopal Church, is visiting in Nelson county, Va.
Mrs. J. L. Johnson, of Richmond, Va., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fairfax at Oak Hill.
Mr. Bernard Mann, of Petersburg, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Charles A. English, in this place.
Miss Jackson and Miss Mary Flakants, of Leesburg, are visiting relatives in Fluvanna county, Va.
Daughters of the late Governor Pinkney White, of Maryland, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Johnson.
Miss Mary Beckley, of Leesburg, is visiting her cousin, Miss Monroe, at Fairfax, Va.
Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Johnson, of Leesburg, Va., are visiting Mrs. Wilson's mother, Mrs. Robert Preston.
Mrs. William L. Barrett and John H. Alexander, Esq., are in Boston, Mass., attending the annual convention of the Rhode Island Bar Association, the highest office of the order.

Farmville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FARMVILLE, VA., August 8.—Dr. C. W. Stone, of New York, was in town a few days of this week in consultation with Dr. J. L. Jarman, of the Normal School. Dr. Stone has been invited to occupy the chair made vacant by the resignation of Dr. Elmer E. Jones, and his visit to Farmville was for the purpose of determining whether or not he would accept.
A pleasant day's outing was enjoyed on Wednesday by the members of the household of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones, who are visiting in the beautiful grove surrounding their country home a mile south of town.
Mrs. Rosa Williams entertained a few friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. White on Tuesday evening.
Mrs. J. W. Bishop and Miss Madeline Baker, of Leesburg, are spending the month of August in Farmville, being in the home of the parents of Mrs. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Duval.
Mrs. C. M. Walker, Mrs. E. Scott Martin, Mrs. H. W. Walker and Mr. and

Waverly Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WAVERLY, VA., August 8.—Miss Mary Fleetwood, of Denton, Md., is visiting Misses Elizabeth and Sally Fleetwood, on East Main Street.
Miss Frances Burt, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. George E. Burt, has returned to her home in Bowling Green, Va.
Miss Pearl Justice, of Gray, Va., is visiting Miss Evelyn May.
Mrs. L. O. Vaughn, who has been visiting Miss Althia at Surry Court-house, Va., has returned home.
The Misses Fleetwood entertained at cards some of their young lady friends last Wednesday in honor of their guests, Miss Pearl Foster, Miss May Rowe and Miss Mary Fleetwood. Most of the young ladies of the town were present, but none of the young men were present, nor were they invited. Mrs. John E. Baird won first prize, and Miss Ethel Daniel the consolation prize.
Rev. Walter Young, of Kentucky, is a guest at the home of Mr. R. A. Daniel.
Miss May Rowe, who has been the charming guest of Misses Elizabeth and Sally Fleetwood for the past several weeks, has returned to her home in Fredericksburg, much to the regret of her friends in Waverly.
Misses Ethel Daniel and Estelle Fitchet, who have been spending some time in Norfolk, as the guests of Miss Rives, have returned to their homes here.
Mr. J. D. Gray has returned from a short visit to Blue Ridge Springs, where Mrs. Gray and children and Miss Nell Gray are spending the summer.
Miss Ruth Spratley, who visited friends and relatives in Denton last week, has now returned to her home on a business trip last Monday and Tuesday.
Mr. William Prince, principal of Richmond Academy, spent a few hours in town last week shaking hands with many of his old friends.
Mrs. George D. Gray has returned from a visit to relatives in Bowling Green, Va.
Miss Catherine West and Miss Elsie West have returned from a pleasant visit to relatives and friends in Newport News, Va.

Gloucester Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
GLOUCESTER C. H., VA., August 8.—Gloucester has been very gay lately. Scarcely an evening has passed without some kind of entertainment, and great heat has made aquatic amusements most popular. Among those who have given sail were Dr. and Mrs. Jaeger, of "Glen Roy"; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tallaferra, of Hockley, and Miss Sally Perrin, of Goshen.
A very much enjoyed occasion was a baseball game between the North River and the Gloucester Court House young men, in which the latter were victorious. The game was played on the Blows field, adjoining the beautiful old Belleville lawn, and was followed by an impromptu dance given by Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Blow. Those present were Misses Sally McClan Jones, Fannie West, Misses Mary Powell, Jean Kowalsky and Lucy Heath; Messrs. Geo. Tallaferra, Geo. Cary, Willie Lee, John Tabb, Geo. Heath, Frank and Murray Dixon.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Cary gave a dinner in honor of their party, Mr. and Mrs. Beards, of Florida, who are spending the summer at Beaufort, on the Ware River.
Mr. James Lyons gave a dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ashby Jones, Jr.
Mrs. John Perrin and the Misses Perrin, of Baltimore, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Tabb.
Mrs. George Cary spent the week at "Hickory," as the guest of Mrs. Richard Tallaferra.
Mrs. Barre Fisher, of West Point, is a guest at Surryville.
Mrs. E. L. Dimmock, Mrs. Henry Ames Williams and Miss Elizabeth Holland, who have been spending several weeks at Mrs. Dimmock's delightful country home, Sherwood, left last week for the Sweet Chalybeate, much to the regret of their many friends, who hoped they would keep Sherwood open the whole summer.
Mrs. Margaret Webb has returned from a visit to Great Barrington, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chismen are with Mr. and Mrs. Slingshot at Kenwood.
Mrs. St. George Bryan and Miss Mary Kemp are at Eagle Point.
Miss Lou Lewis and Miss Molly Jones, of Enfield, were guests at Summerville.
Miss Mary Page Lee has returned from a visit to Halifax.
Mrs. Corbin Waller and Mrs. Jordan are at White Hall, guests of Captain and Mrs. Richard Waller.
Mrs. Sam Janney is visiting her mother, Mrs. Gerard Hopkins.
Mrs. Lewis Jones left on Friday for Orange Courthouse.
Mr. and Mrs. Roland Clarke left on Wednesday for New York.
Mrs. L. C. Cutler and children are at "The Cedars," guests of Mrs. Heber Nelson.
Miss Marion Lewis and Miss Julia Jennings, of West Point, are at Mount Pleasant, guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Saunders.
Mrs. N. D. Sills, of Richmond, was the guest of W. B. Lee, Jr., for several days.

Williamsburg Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WILLIAMSBURG, VA., August 8.—Hon. James N. Stubbs, of Gloucester, spent Thursday in the city.
Rev. H. H. Roy, of Richmond, pastor of Union Station M. E. Church, was a visitor here this week.
Miss Mary Lee, of Charlottesville, and Miss Helen Potts, of Barboursville, who have been guests of Miss Alice Ware, have returned to their homes.
Mrs. Bowman, of Baltimore, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Mattie Morris.
Miss Lucy Winder, of Norfolk, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. D. Cole.
Mrs. J. H. Leath and children are visiting relatives in Prince George county.
Miss Nannie Spencer will leave next week for Clifton Forge to visit friends.
The Misses J. H. Moseley and her cousin, Miss Julia Holt, of Hampton, are visiting the former's father, Mr. Henry Armistead.
Mr. and Mrs. James H. Stone left this week for Niagara, and will spend two weeks in the North.
Mrs. L. W. Jones has returned from a short visit to her mother, Mrs. Wilson, in Norfolk.
Mrs. Fannie Mosecock is the guest here. Her family, who are spending time at Buckroe Beach.
Miss Mary Lou Servant is the guest of Mrs. F. M. Apperson in New Kent county.
Commonwealth's Attorney Norvelle Henley and Mrs. H. H. Hensley attended the meeting of the Bar Association at Hot Springs this week.
Mrs. Metcalf and children, of Menominee, Wis., are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Thorpe.
Misses Sue Hurdley and Lucile Foster, of Leesburg, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moseley for a week's stay at Ocean View.
Mrs. Jerome Casey and Miss Stella Wolfe are at Ocean View.

Farmville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FARMVILLE, VA., August 8.—The following Richmond people are scattered over town and spending the summer at the home of their relatives: Rev. R. D. Garland, Mr. Gray Garland, Mrs. Leslie Rudd, Miss Gay Montague, Mr. and Mrs. Ashbrook, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Walker and daughter, are at Maple Shade Inn, Palukki, Va.
Misses Bessie and Belle Gilliam left yesterday for Leesburg friends.
Miss M. F. Stone, a former member of the faculty of the State Female Normal School, is stopping for a few days at Hotel Prince Edward.
Mrs. H. M. Macon and children, and Miss Adelle Ferratt, of Norfolk, who have been guests of Mrs. L. L. Heister, returned Thursday to their homes.
Miss Blandy, of the Normal School, is stopping for a few days at the home of Mrs. J. H. Moseley, who will be with much regret.
Miss Madeline Shiner, of Lynchburg, and Miss Alice Smith, of Norfolk, are visiting in the home of Mr. William H. Burger.
Mrs. R. D. Miller, who has been visiting in Richmond and Philadelphia, has returned to Farmville.

Keysville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
KEYSVILLE, VA., August 8.—The following Richmond people are scattered over town and spending the summer at the home of their relatives: Rev. R. D. Garland, Mr. Gray Garland, Mrs. Leslie Rudd, Miss Gay Montague, Mr. and Mrs. Ashbrook, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Walker and daughter, are at Maple Shade Inn, Palukki, Va.
Misses Bessie and Belle Gilliam left yesterday for Leesburg friends.
Miss M. F. Stone, a former member of the faculty of the State Female Normal School, is stopping for a few days at Hotel Prince Edward.
Mrs. H. M. Macon and children, and Miss Adelle Ferratt, of Norfolk, who have been guests of Mrs. L. L. Heister, returned Thursday to their homes.
Miss Blandy, of the Normal School, is stopping for a few days at the home of Mrs. J. H. Moseley, who will be with much regret.
Miss Madeline Shiner, of Lynchburg, and Miss Alice Smith, of Norfolk, are visiting in the home of Mr. William H. Burger.
Mrs. R. D. Miller, who has been visiting in Richmond and Philadelphia, has returned to Farmville.

Raleigh Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., August 8.—Wednesday evening the Misses Causse entertained a number of friends at bridge whist, in honor of their charming guest, Miss Mildred Criss, of Orange, N. J., who is their guest at the splendid Causse suburban home, northwest of the city. The party made up two tables, and the affair proved most delightful in every way. The guests were Miss Criss, Orange, N. J.; Miss Isabel Simmons, Dr. Joel Whitaker, Mr. Wright Dixon, Mr. Charles E. Johnson, Jr., and a party of young people of the city went out to the farm of Mr. Billy Taylor, near Raleigh, Thursday evening, for a big watermelon feast, followed by music and dancing and a general merry time. Among those in the party were Misses Kate and Janet Badger, Miss Crutrup, Miss Emma Haywood, Miss Lucy Moore, Miss Mary Sneed, Miss Isabel Simmons, Miss Amelia Whitaker, Messrs. Austin Dargatz, George Mordecai, William Mordecai, Robert Leach, Ben Sasser, Albert Little, W. P. Wise, E. Ambruster, William P. Little. The chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. S. Lindsay.
Mrs. W. J. Roberts and daughter, Miss Virginia Roberts, are here from Henderson, guests of Mrs. Roberts' son, Mr. W. W. Roberts, teller of the Citizens' National Bank.
The keenest interest is manifested here in the announcement through Mr. and Mrs. William T. Dorch, of Goldsboro, of the marriage of their sister, Miss Mattie Fender Lewis, to Mr. Wade Barber, on Monday evening, August 17th, at Goldsboro. Miss Lewis has numerous visiting friends here.

Brian Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRIAN, VA., August 8.—Professor O. H. Nixon is quite sick at his home near this place.
Miss Lora Tribble has gone to Richmond on a visit to Miss Mattie Hillman.
Mr. Frank Grady has been very much indisposed for some time.
Dr. J. G. Boxley is again at home, and a number of extra size of several years in Tennessee.
Mr. John Hillman has returned after a visit to his parents in Richmond.
Messrs. Layman and Yowall, of Charlottesville, and a number of Richmond, were at Brian last week.

Macaroon Ice Cream

is made from pure cream, crushed almonds and macaroons. Most delicious of ice creams, 10c.

Miller & Rhoads

MAIL ORDERS FILLED AT ADVERTISED PRICES.

Porcelain Plates, 5c

Fine White Porcelain Plates, pressed and glazed, that retail every day for $1 a dozen. Special lot to-morrow, 5c each.

A Sale of New Black Voile Skirts

Our Skirt buyer wired us from New York that he has just purchased at a tremendous sacrifice in price about fifty Black Voile Skirts elaborately trimmed. The wire came too late to obtain any details, except that the garments will be offered you at from 30 to 40 per cent. below their real value.

Two Linen Specials

Echoes of our great August Linen Sale:
All Pure Linen Damask, bleached or unbleached, 70 inches wide; regular 85c quality, per yard 69c
Pure Linen Napkins, regular $1.00 quality... 79c
The guarantee of this good linen store is behind these linens. (Main Floor, West.)

Silk Mulls, 8½c & 15c yd

Former Prices 12½c to 25c yd
The cut in prices on these pretty Wash Goods is in line with our policy during the August Harvest Sale—Summer Stuffs MUST go, though summer itself will be with us for many weeks.
Pretty shades of blue, pink, heliotrope, cream, corn, green and white in this collection.
Our 15c to 25c FLOWERED ORGANDIES, fresh, clean, pretty wash goods, have also been cut to 8½c yd.
It's a sale of Wash Goods you shouldn't fail to take advantage of to-morrow. (Main Floor, Sixth Street.)

C. B. Corsets, $1.50

Nos. 512 and 518, in batiste, long hip, with high or medium bust to suit all figures.
C. B. Corsets are noted for the superior quality of materials used, and the style and beauty of their lines.
Our models at $1.50 are among the best brought out this season. (Second Floor, East.)

Big Sale of Fancy Linens: Reduced Prices

Hemstitched and Drawn Work Doilies, Centres, Squares and Scarfs, plain or stamped—pieces that have gotten a little mused or soiled or lots that have become depleted. It's a sale of fancy linens that you can't afford to miss. The quantity of each kind is limited. Be here early to-morrow morning.

Doilies, Squares and Centres, Union Linen, were 15c to 25c, now 15c	Centrepieces and Scarfs, Linen and Union linen, were 39c, now 39c	Centrepieces and Scarfs, Union Linen, were 50c, now 50c
Muslin and Lawn Pillow Shams and Drawers, Scarfs, drawn and applique work, were $1, now 75c	Muslin and Lawn Pillow Shams and Drawers, Scarfs, drawn and applique work, were $2, now 59c	Pure Linen Centrepieces, 18 and 21-inch sizes, embroidered in French and Madeira patterns, scalloped edges, were $2.25, now $2.00 and $3.25, now $1.50 and $2.00

Muslin Underwear Dependable and Low in Price

Garments that first of all have quality—the best of materials. The seamstress work is first-class—no dropped stitches nor poorly worked buttonholes. Each garment made in sanitary factories. Prices the very lowest for which first-class work can be sold.
Gowns, good nainsook, round neck, yoke of lace, ribbon and beading; short sleeve, trimmed with lace, $2.00.
Chemise, good nainsook, round yoke of lace, insertion and Swiss embroidery; lace edge ribbon and beading, $2.00.
Drawers, good nainsook; cluster of tucks and ruffle of embroidery, $1.50.
Corset Covers, excellent quality nainsook or lawn, trimmed with Val. lace and insertion, $1.50.
 Petticoats, good cambric, deep lace ruffle trimmed with fine embroidery, with a cluster of six tucks above embroidery, $2.00. (Second Floor, East.)

Economy The Ready-to-Wear Garment Section

It's a question now of cleaning up all the summer stocks at practically any price to make room for fall goods. Our garment buyer is in the market.

Traveling Suits, $14.75 Special

Light Weight Serges and Panamas in semi and tight-fitting Coat Suits. Hundreds of women will need Suits like these for country or seashore this month. In quality, make and price these Suits are exceptionally satisfactory. Gray, black, blue and brown, $14.75.

Rain Coats, $7.95

Unusual Value
Vulcanized Rubber Coats on pure mohair, excellent quality, guaranteed to shed the rain; stitched straps over the shoulder. Equally serviceable for motoring as well as storm. Golden brown, navy, black and gray, all sizes, $7.95.

15c and 18c White Goods, 12½c yd

Twenty or more different designs, in checked and striped Lawns and figured and Dotted Swiss. Sheer, thin, pretty goods—values that are attracting crowds of people these August days.
Another August special is our 15c quality of White Lawn, 40 inches wide, that we're selling for 11½c yd.
You'll not find anything just as good as this Lawn at the price. (Main Floor, Centre.)

Luggage Values at Miller & Rhoads

The values "ring true" every time. Every penny you invest in these Suit Cases, Bags and Trunks returns to you in good service. There's no sham or pretense about these goods.
Suit Cases, 22 inches, matting covered, leather edge and corners, brass lock, nicely lined, $2.25.
Trunks, 34 inches, canvas covered, leather strap, good brass lock, $4.25.
Trunks, canvas covered, excelsior lock, brass bolts and trimmings, $6.00. (Third Floor, West.)

Wash Suits, $3.50

Regular $5 and $6 Values
About twenty Suits in this lot, in black and leather color linen. Butterfly and loose coat styles. Broken sizes, but splendid values if we can fit you, $3.50.

Shirtwaists, 78c

Former Prices 95c to $1.25
Eight different styles of white lawn, trimmed with embroidery and lace. Economy week makes the price 78c instead of what they have been, 95c to $1.25. All sizes. Fresh, clean waists.

Wash Skirts, 93c

They Were Up to $1.48
Belmont Cloth—the famous linen finished fabric. White, pink, dark blue and cadet blue. Quite a number of extra size skirts in the lot, which makes them all the more valuable. (Second Floor, West.)